THE “IRON GIANTS OF ASPHALT” WILL CROWN ITS 2019 SEASON CHAMPION AT BRISTOL MOTOR SPEEDWAY ON OCTOBER 12TH

(Bristol, TN – October, 2019) – The highly anticipated Bandit Big Rig Series season finale comes to Bristol Motor Speedway and its illustrious tradition on Saturday, October 12th. One Bandit driver will be crowned champion at its conclusion, after another successful season comes to a strong close at the inaugural Bandit Bristol Battle.

Ricky Rude (two-time defending champion) holds a slim 13-point edge over Mark “Wheel Man” Noble entering the finale. Marshall “Pig Pen” Davis & Allen “Turbo” Boles remain in contention, both within 100 points of the leader. This is setup to be a spectacular finish, as the entire Bandit drivers are looking forward to taking home the checkered flag at Bristol.

“Last year’s Bandit Big Rig Series was a thrill as fans in this area got to see these Iron Giants at speeds of over 100 mph for the first time,” said Jerry Caldwell, executive vice president and general manager at Bristol Motor Speedway. “Not only will these drivers be racing hard to claim a victory on the ‘Holy Grail of Short Tracks’, four drivers will be battling for the season championship title.”
